

Egg Salad: The Picnic Powerhouse

Description: "Egg salad is the unsung hero of the picnic world, and this version is ready to reclaim its crown. Hard-boiled eggs get mashed up with creamy mayo, a little chopped red onion for crunch, and a sprinkle of paprika to keep things exciting. Want to take it to the next level? Throw in some chives and watch everyone at the table wonder why their sandwiches never taste this good. Egg salad just leveled up."
